Mike, Kelly says you are thinking of stepping down from leadership. What's up?

Stewart, sorry I got tied up at work. My decision is based on several factors.

- 1) our organizational posture as a militia group, I find problematic. It's not a match for my ideology. I'm more geared to networking and training, like the CPT model.
- 2) I realize you are very busy man, but some of the internal problems really bother me e.g. member rosters and member verification.
- 3) my biggest concern is the unchained rhetoric flying around our chats. Members are very vocal about sensitive subject matter, poor opsec and completely inappropriate conversations that could be turned on us. My employment requires 3 State Licenses and I'm subject to suspension based on behavior they

I'm seriously not trying to bust balls or be an ass. I'm a proud life time member and will be in the back. The owner of my Company is still on a vent and I'm having to step up there. I run a State contract which is a 7 day a week overwatch and my relief is on a vent.

The Chapter has some great guys, they can handle it and I'll be watching.
